Professional poker player and coach for more than 10 yearsCo-author of books on pokerDesigned and developed GrinderU.com, a poker coaching site Adam Stemple, a former writer for ThoughtCo, wrote and edited articles about the game of poker for more than two years. Adam has been playing poker for 20 years, with 10 of these years being as a professional player. He is an expert high-low player and low-limit grinder. He coaches other poker professionals and aspiring tournament players. Adam co-wrote two self-published books, No Limits: The Fundamentals of No-Limit Hold Em (No Limit Books, 2010) and Tournament Rules (Amazon Digital Services, 2011). These two books outline seven rules which professional poker players use when playing in tournaments. Adam also co-developed one of the first poker coaching sites, Poker Fox.net, now part of PokerXFactor. He co-owns the subscription coaching website GrinderU.com. The site offers courses in many different types of poker including Omaha, and no-limit Hold Em games via live seminars and college-style courses. Education Adam Stemple earned an Associate of Applied Science (A.A.S.) degree in Web Design from the Minneapolis Community and Technical College.Awards and Publications A Message from Adam Stemple LiveAbout and Dotdash Meredith LiveAbout, a Dotdash Meredith brand, is a reference site focused on entertainment, activities, and hobbies.
